

Catching this picture of Dick Hutton and John Pake was quite an accomplishment. Two of our star wrestlers, these boys are usually moving so fast that it's hard to keep up with them.

Even the Aggie matmen have their ups and downs. One of our boys has just lost a match and the victor's teammates are rushing out to congratulate him. Losing as well as winning is a part of any sport.

Here's what happens when a wrestler has the misfortune to get on the "wrong side" of his opponent. The probable result of this one, a pin for our opponents.
