

The Honor Society Seeks Scholarship

In accordance with its national charter, anyone who seeks membership in the National Honor Society must have a two and one half year average of 3.2; a senior scholastic average for three and one half years must be at least 3.0. Further qualifications are leadership, good character, and a record of service.

Candidates who have met all of the requirements are elected by the faculty.

National Honor Society advisor: Mr. E. N. Reiersgord.

Those presiding as Honor Society officers are: SEATED: Gary Ackerman, Mr. Reiersgord, Carol Fehr. STANDING: Jack Bornsen.

National Honor Society members are: SEATED: Carol Fehr, Betty Swanson. STANDING: Douglas Wolden, Jack Bornsen, Gary Tvinnereim, Gary Ackerman.

