

IN MEMORIAM

--RICHARD NELSON-- 1947-1962

All of us who knew Ricky, found him to be an all-around good friend. He wasn't always the perfect example of a studious student nor was he always one to let fun pass him by. I know that when it came to having fun Ricky sometimes could be found in the center of this gaiety and even at some-times was the leader.

We as students, are thankful for knowing Ricky and we know our lives have been touched in some way by his.

Therefore it is our wish that this memorial shall serve as a reminder to those of us who have the opportunity to reach our goals in life, that our time is short and that we must make the best use of it before it becomes too late.

Because I have loved life, I shall have no sorrow
to die.
I have sent up my gladness on wings, to be lost
in the blue of the sky,
I have run and leaped with the rain, I have taken the wind on my breast.
My cheek like a drowsy child to the face of the earth I have pressed.
Because I have loved life, I shall have no sorrow
to die.

I give a share of my soul to the world where my course is run.
I know that another shall finish the task I must leave undone.
I know that no flower, no flint was in vain on the path I trod.
As one looks on a face through a window, through life have I looked on God.
Because I have loved life, I shall have no sorrow
to die. --Amelia J. Burr
