A Junior's Life Is Always Exciting

The "Harmony Twins" entertained us as a part of the Homecoming Assembly. This picture is conclusive evidence that the juniors were enjoying the performance.

Every morning the junior boys are rudely awakened by the blood-curdling howl of Mr. Anderson's dog, Snipper. This is just one of the many things an Aggie junior must go through.

Do you want to know some more? How about when they sit in the dining hall, after breakfast, trying to cram for those six week tests? Or when the boys take too long to walk their girls back to the dorm and have to run for their next class.

What would happen if the girls didn't have Mrs. Larson to keep them in line and make them come in at night? How long do you think they would stand outside? I wonder what goes on, anyway?

Do you know what happens when a junior girl forgets to iron her white blouse for tomorrow? Well, she goes through the dorm on a borrowing spree. By the way of the grapevine, we hear that the boys go through something like this also.

Because of the pranks of some people in the dormitories there is never a dull moment. These are just some of the things that make a day in the lives of juniors exciting and thrilling.
