

Orientation

Every week Ma Brown meets with the freshman girls and Mr. Lysacker with the freshman boys to answer questions and help them to develop good manners, good personalities, study habits and become good citizens. It also helps the freshmen make the adjustment to high school and to life here at the Northwest School as smoothly as possible.

ABOVE: Girls' orientation instructor: Ma Brown. BELOW: Boys' orientation class in session.

