

Much of the time for working on the annual is spent in conference with the other workers and looking at the new prints. All of this adds a spirit of togetherness and fun to the process of producing a worthwhile yearbook.

