

Waiting on the threshold to enter the auditorium, the queen candidates are filled with tension about who will be chosen as the Homecoming Queen for 1964.

As Mr. Anderson begins to play the opening strains of the "triumphal march from 'Aida'," all hearts beat faster as the candidates begin to advance toward the throne.

Homecoming

After having walked past all candidates, football captain, Jim Swenson, places the robe and crown on Claudia Hanson and proclaims her queen for 1964.

Homecoming

A week prior to Homecoming the dormitories were busy preparing their displays while the football boys were practicing extra hard so that our victory over the Bobcats from Oklee would add another crowning touch to make this year's Homecoming the finest ever.

