Constant practice in all commercial subjects--both in class and during free periods--helps to make the perfect stenographer. Even though practice means many hours of difficult work, there is a great sense of satisfaction in knowing that the goals set by Mrs. Betty Ann Johnson and Mr. David Anderson in shorthand, typing, and bookkeeping have been met and accomplished.

MRS. BETTY ANN JOHNSON, Crookston, Minnesota; B. S., University of North Dakota; Typing I, Shorthand I and II; Cheerleading Advisor.
