

Seniors

A historical marker

For seniors, completion of high school marks the first major goal in their education.