

Storage Research

The Experiment Station currently has nine silos: five Harvestore silos and four concrete stave silos. The Northwest Experiment Station emphasizes the use of high quality forage with ruminant animals. The dairy herd has been completely on haylage for nearly three years. High quality haylage is made in both the Harvestores and the concrete stave silos.

