Slide rule problems! Oh, nuts! Larry Murphy, James Bingham, and Harold Peterson have them. Right: Elroy Lotvola takes out the kinks in a phy ed class. Below: Dave Isaacson leads a discussion in an American Institutions section taught by Mr. Reimer. Leo Lancot and Gary Kolstad look interested.

With the approval of the University, Tech was this year allowed to establish a reciprocity program with Corbett College in Crookston. Under the arrangement, students have the privilege of taking courses at Corbett which are not offered here. Corbett women may do the same at Tech. The first of these, Humanities, was given on campus this year for three quarters under a grant from the Hill Foundation.
