

Everyone Takes Them

*H. H. Lysaker
Athletic Director*

*R. W. Mathis
Psychology-Counselor*

An innovation this year is the establishment of the most complete reading and study skills laboratory in the five-state area. Here any student may take a course in reading and comprehension improvement designed to raise the level of his classroom efficiency. Minnesota Tech believes there is no more important instruction for success in higher education than learning to read, listen, and study effectively. R. W. Mathis is in charge.

*Harold Opgrand
Supervisor, Learning Resources*

Learning to communicate in Mrs. Flom's Communications class! Below, left: Dr. Stoppel and other organic biochemists, Tom Spillum and Dwight Aakre. Below: Mr. Mathis demonstrates the use of the reading pacer to Richard Applequist, Leroy Luchau, and Gilbert Jorve.

