

Freshmen: — Busy, Eager

Dwight Aakre
Hawley

Wayne Aakre
Hawley

Allen J. Amiot
Crookston

Freshmen comes in a variety of shapes, sizes, and interests, with one thing in common: they all arrived for Welcome Week bewildered and somewhat scared. After a month they were involved in everything from sports to (sometimes) study, and they have been contributing generously to campus life.

Craig Anderson
Halstad

Gary Anderson
Warren

James Anderson
Stillwater

Of the approximately 175 first year students, fewer than fifty are women, a percentage that is advantageous for the female and disastrous for the male, unless he likes to play the field. Most freshmen boys would like to see the college offer nursing, sewing, and pie baking.

Roger H. Anderson
Forest Lake

Terry Anderson
Rush City

Charles Arvidson
Vergas

James Arvidson
Parkers Prairie

Paulann Audette
Crookston

Pauline Audette
Crookston

William Bang
Crookston

René M. Baron
St. Paul

David Baston
St. Cloud

Steven Baumgardt
Hector