

UMC's First Class Graduates June 7

Commencement exercises for Tech's first class were held Friday, June 7, at two p.m. with seventy-two receiving the Associate degree.

Graduating with high distinction from the division of agriculture were Jerome Bunkowske, Allan Gustafson, Dennis Hjelle, James Kasel, and Leo Lofgren.

Those earning high distinction in business included Anne Granitz, Peggy Johnson, and Peggy Lee.

Candidates who were graduated with high distinction in agriculture were Richard Applequist, Lee Eastland, Harold Emde, Donald Matson, and Ronald Reitmeier.

In the business division, distinction graduates were Ralph Berg Jr., Deborah Bolstad, Larry Delude, Eugene Dufault, Donald Jaros, Twylla Johnson, Reed Owens, Jane Ewing Peterson, and Gary Strand.

Other students who received degrees in agriculture were Roger Amundson, James Beutz, Neil Blume, Clifford Branham, Robert Dunne, James Husnik, Terrance Johnson, Steven Josephson, Calvin Krupa, Gerald Moritz, David Mortenson, Larry Murphy, Alan Ruis, and Ronald Tobkin.

Others who completed requirements for an associate degree in business were David Behr, Nancy Beresford, Lyle Berg, Dacian Bienek, James Bierschbach, Brian Bohnsack, Jeffrey Bondy, John Brouillard, Harold Christen, William Dahle, Stephen Danielson, and Dianne Glad;

Ronald Grossinger, Jerome Hickman, Debra Johnson, Keith Johnson, Richard Kaltenberg, Glen Kloempken, Dennis Magsam, Allan Martens, JoAnn Solheim McFarland, Richard Normandin.

Chris Odden, Robert Olson, Lowell Peterson, Richard Piker, Keith Ramberg, Peter Ramstad, Jerry Regan, Duane Sanford, Ann Siegmund, Stephen Simones, Donna Steien, Michael Stelton, and Gregory Stuhau.

Nancy Beresford accepts her degree from Dr. Sahlstrom and Richard Christenson. The Emdes (below) chat happily with Drs. Marx and Windels after the ceremonies.

