

Smiling faces greet many newcomers. This half of Hosts and Hostesses includes Sherry Hoeft, Steve Langager, Nancy Tish, Ken Pazdernik, Janet Sax, Jerry Oxborough, Barb Sorenson, and Pam Bearden.

Campus politics this year has been a quiet affair. The Student Senate goes about its business with precision and calm, only occasionally running into gripes and squawks from the students it tries to serve. Darrell Hoyle began the fall quarter as president. When he graduated at the end of winter quarter, Donald Johnson, vice-president, assumed the leadership. Advisers for 1968-69 have been Dale Knotek, James Haakenson, Wendell Johnson, and Erman Ueland.

Those people who run around campus sporting maroon blazers with the University crest emblazoned in gold are campus Hosts and Hostesses. They act as official guides and individual information bureaus. Their adviser is Allen Croone. Jerry Oxborough captained the group fall and winter quarters, and Ken Pazdernik, spring quarter.

We're people who lead people

Getting help from Miss Christianson in the business office is Mitch Chrzanowski.

The other half of the smiling Host and Hostess faces are Jim Arvidson, Susan Stock, Al Roebke, Linda Arens, Terry Anderson, Bev Foss, Bob Tisland, and Gloria Stenlund.

