

Roger Fischer, editor of the Commentator for five quarters.

The commentator Campus press box

Although a student's life is uncertain at best, one thing he can depend on every two weeks is the campus newspaper. Roger Fischer completed his fifth quarter as editor in March and turned the post over to Robert Tisland, who has taken charge this spring. Dennis Nelson has been the efficient business manager. Though not blessed with a large staff, the paper has been issued through the added efforts of John Wilkie, Herbert Spinler, Linda Arens, Shelley Newell, Nancy Tish, and Jim Arvidson. Mrs. R. T. McCulla is the adviser.

Looking glum as he tries to make the deadline is the spring quarter editor, Robert Tisland. Below, is the paper's financial genius, Dennis Nelson, who often dubs as a reporter, too.

Herbert Spinler, known as Herbie, who is general aide to generals who need aid.
