

Gladly they sing their varied carols

Kris Mathews and Una Rae Thune could have sung all night.

UMC's choir made sweet music together and in small groups this year at many programs and dinners. Directed by Mr. Leon Flancher, the group was made up of more than twenty-five voices. They sang a Christmas concert, appeared at the dedication ceremonies for Knutson Hall, and performed at the Honors Banquet. In April they made a trip to Winnipeg to make informal appearances at several children's hospitals and retirement homes. Exploring the nearby Canadian city was also on the docket.

Fifteen voices made up the folk group which performed at the Honors Banquet.
