

Some people with talents are honored

Phi Theta Kappa honorees include, Front Row: J. Laude, R. Schwenzfrier, W. Webb, C. Bremer, L. Arens, R. Wehking, M. Steer, M. Plante. Back Row: D. Jaenicke, W. LeClair, H. Zachman, J. LaVoi, C. Schilling, R. Ramey, J. Vignes, D. Korsmo, M. Hagen, G. Iverson. Not pictured: R. Krueger, G. Olsonawski.

Elected to Who's Who in American Junior Colleges were M. Cordes, R. Fischer, J. Laude, and K. Mathews. Not pictured is D. Hoyle.

More than fifty UMC men and women were honored at the annual Awards Day banquet held in the dining hall on April 29. Guests consisted of civic leaders and donors to the college scholarship fund. Dr. James Hogg, vice president for academic affairs on the Twin Cities campus, was the guest speaker. Joseph Mazzitelli acted as master of ceremonies, and the Rev. Harold Dayton gave the invocation.

Presentation of awards was made by Dr. Stanley Sahlstrom. New members to Phi Theta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity in junior colleges, were recognized, student service awards for outstanding contributions to campus life were presented, and students having shown academic achievement received commendation. Special music featured the UMC folk group accompanied by Una Rae Thune on her ukulele and by Kris Mathews on the piano.