

The day: June 6

The events: big

Associate degrees were conferred on 86 at commencement ceremonies June 6 at two p.m. Those graduating from the Agricultural Division with high distinction included Charles Bremer, Myron Cordes, Michael Hagen, Gaylon Iverson, Duane Jaenicke, Randall Krueger, and Roger Schwenzfeier. Degrees with distinction went to James Bingham, Harold Gast, D. Dustin Gilger, Darrell Hoyle, Gerald Olsonawski, Thomas Spillum, and Eugene Swanson. Judith Laude and Kristin Mathews were high distinction candidates in the Business Division. William Bang, Cynthia Dahl, Judith Jessen, and David Trom received degrees with distinction. Other degree candidates in agriculture were Dwight Aakre, Dickey Adams, Allen Amiot, Gary Anderson, Terry Anderson, Charles Arvidson, James Arvidson, Sheldon Bolstad, Curtis Brekken, Ronald Bucholz, James Cyr, James Dillman, Lyle Dittman, Dale Erickson, Stanley Gostanczik, Leon Grove, Curtis Hanson, Marlin Haugen, David Hesse, Donald Johnson, Richard LeCocq, Joseph Mangen, Donald Martodam, David Matthies, Dennis Nelson, Peter Novotny, Lee Olson, Mark Olson, Jerry Oxborough, Leroy Reitmeier, Daniel Skolness, Herbert Spinler, Richard Stafford, Neal Stenlund, Vernon Suedkamp, Ervin Trosdahl, and Jerry Wetterlin. Other graduates in the Business Division Paulann Audette, Pauline Audette, Rene Baron, David Baston, Daniel Beason, Kelly Bitker, Donna Bunkowske, Andrea Clay, Rebecca Clow, Jerome Desautel, Alice Erickson, Arlen Hanson, Rosalie Hentila, Jerome Hickman, Sheryl Hoeft, James Lang, Stephen Langager, Maryanne Larter, Ernest Normandin, Lynn Pierce, Robert Price, Gregory Ranz, Jerry Regan, Helen Sandry, Donn Sawyer, Karen Sorenson, and Caryn Wallenberg. The two degree candidates in Food Service Management were Pamela Bearden and Janet Sax.

The academic procession, led by Mace-Bearer Harry Soderburg. Below: Graduates, parents, and friends were entertained at a luncheon before commencement. Pictured enjoying their food are Mrs. Sahlstrom, Dr. Shalstrom, and Vice-president Cashman.

