

Two gracious persons tech will miss

Harry Soderburg, mace bearer for two Tech commencements.

A wise poet once said that some people in retiring draw hearts after them. Two of these must surely be Mrs. Myrtle Brown and Harry Soderburg, both of whom will be missed by both faculty and students. Ma Brown's good food has added to the fine reputation of UMC and her sense of humor to the good fellowship. Mr. Soderburg's patience and quiet competence as a teacher have endeared him to his students for the twenty-four years he has been on the campus as a college and formerly as a high school instructor. No one can imagine either of them "retiring", but that is what they say they are going to do. Farewell and thank you from everyone at UMC.

The staff entertained at a potluck dinner for the retirees on May 22. Pictured are Mrs. Soderburg, Dr. Sahlstrom, Mrs. Brown, and Mr. Soderburg.

The grin that made the Trojan Inn famous, Myrtle Brown's.
