

Fun, Sunflowers Greet New Frosh

Fun was in store for the 275 freshmen who arrived for Welcome Week, September 24-28. There were many exciting activities planned for them. Meetings and huddle groups to get acquainted with fellow students were part of each day's schedule. A tea for parents, a dance, and a picnic at Maple Lake where girls from Corbett College were guests were all part of the action. The students were also given a chance to get acquainted with the faculty by visiting their homes.

Saturday's program consisted of a bonfire, pep rally, parade, and the second annual Sunflower Bowl football game. Wanda Larson from Climax High School was crowned queen of the festival during halftime at the game. From a field of four marching bands, the group from Ada High School took first place.

But skylarking can't last. When Monday arrived, work began.

Spirited oompah and cadence added fuel to the parade pep.

Under the leadership of sophomore, Nancy Tish, huddle group members Craig Jarcho, Tom Bulfer, Rich Koch, Steve Bremer, Chuck Berdan, and Curt Burmeister learn the "rules of the game."
