

On the Winter Scene

Whether it's modeling a new maxi coat, eating French fries in the Trojan Inn, cheering at a game, playing pool, or just sitting around singing in Robertson, there's always something to do when the winter winds blow.

Crookston's Christmas parade brought out several UMC units on a damp, raw day in December. Of course, the Vets were among them. Women students, including Debby Nelson and Diane Gran, enjoyed volleyball in the gymnasium when the weather was crisp.