

The Vigorous Life Is Always Their Bag

These Future Farmers of America are Sentinel Mike Granlund, Pres. Lowell Thompson, Vice-Pres. Harlow Grove, Treas. Van Johnson; SECOND ROW: Keith Bjornson, Nathan Redland, Dave Ramstorf, Barry Lura, Ted Eifealdt, Greg Webster; THIRD ROW: Truman Tillerias, adviser; Don Hollermann, Jim Gondringer, Ron Thompson, Jim Wiese, Curt Swanson, Paul Aakre.

Get involved! Do your thing! Participation in clubs and organizations is an important part of college life, students soon discover. What better satisfaction can a member get than that of knowing he is contributing to a worthwhile cause, having fun, and making new friends? For the ag-minded fellows, there are FFA, Agricore, and Flying Trojans. The chief objective of the former is the cultivation of leadership, social ability, and understanding of agricultural programs. Agricore, soon to be called UMC Toastmasters, aims to develop communications skills among its members. Those daring young men in their flying machines are the Flying Trojans. For the sports enthusiasts Lettermen's Club, Ski Club, or Targetmasters are the organizations to join. Take to the slopes with the Ski Club, Tech's newest, or get rid of some of that pent-up anger at the Crookston armory with the Targetmasters.

Agricore members are, SEATED: Bruce Knauss, John Vignes, Dennis Miller, Vice-Pres. Greg Kalinoski, Treas. Clayton Rawhouser, Sec. Paul Aakre, STANDING: Jim Wiese, Chuck Gust, Kermit Bahls, Dave Korsmo, Pres. Gordon Anderson, Harlow Grove, Keith Bjornson, Jon Christensen, Ken Pazdernik, Al Roebke.

Members of the Flying Trojans are, SEATED: Marvin Housman, Leelan Evans, Glenn Vos, and Mitch Chrzanowski and, STANDING: John Seibert, Gerry Gustafson and Art Aaseng.

