

Tom Noel, famous Clemens impersonator, entertained a large audience in November with his "Mark Twain at Home".

Program Range: Satire to Sober

Here are two young comedians who are on their way up, Edmonds and Curly. They visited the campus in March with their hilarious antics.

In late February students flocked to hear Lillian Anthony talk on racial problems and attitudes. Miss Anthony is acting head of Afro-American studies on the Twin Cities campus.

Robert Roe gave an illustrated lecture on his travels in Peru — on a raft, no less. A hardy Scot, bagpipes are one of his specialities.

