At Fall Banquet Tech Honors Its Gridiron Men

The men of the gridiron were honored on December 2 at the annual banquet in Bede Hall. A total of forty-two received recognition. Highest awards went to Jim LeClair, most valuable back, and Dennis Braukmann, most valuable lineman. All-conference players, LeClair, Braukmann, Richard Wehking, and Joe Kelly, received special trophies. Speaker for the evening was Harold Kraft, baseball coach at the University of North Dakota, Master of ceremonies was Bruce Williams of Crookston, who represented the dinner sponsors, the Chamber of Commerce. Local businessmen, faculty, and coaches and players from area high schools attended.

Two of Tech's outstanding football players proudly display their trophies. Shown are Coach Paulsen; Jim LeClair, most valuable back; Dennis Braukmann, most valuable lineman; and Athletic Director Lysaker.
