

Wehking Wins 'Player of Year' Trophy

Guest speaker, Sonny Gulsvig, is head basketball coach at Concordia College.

Richard Wehking, sophomore, received the college's highest sports award at the annual spring athletic banquet May 19 when he was named Student Athlete of the Year. This honor goes to the man who has attained high scholarship and outstanding athletic achievement. Lloyd Mayes was named most valuable player in both basketball and track. Jim LeClair won the most valuable wrestler trophy; and Ryam Brantl, the most valuable baseball player prize. Fifty-three winter and spring sports participants received letters, and managers and cheerleaders were also honored. Sonny Gulsvig, head basketball coach at Concordia College, the guest speaker, stressed the importance of learning responsibility in his talk on the "Three Faces of Eve."

Richard Wehking is Tech's Student Athlete of the Year. Rich has been vice-president of Student Senate, player on the football team, and on the Dean's list.
