

Students and faculty held a spirited teach-in on the issues in Southeast Asia on May 15, Referendum Day. Because of delay in the arrival of materials, only a small percentage of the campus population had an opportunity to vote.

Job interviewing is a spring activity for graduating sophomores. Mike Sublet talks to Frank Annin, representative of the J.C. Penney Co.

Booths, contests, races, dancing, and other hoopla characterized the Carnival of the Mall, June 5-6. Betty Brecto appears to have been jailed! Packing (BELOW) or unpacking, the college student lives in a clutter of clothing and junk. Shelley Newell thought it was simpler to make up a bed on the floor.

