

These men were members of Tech's first cross country team. They are Scott Sparlin, Tom Bulfer, and Jim Krych, REAR ROW; and Kevin Hirdler and Steve Wills, FRONT ROW. They took part in five meets, winning both second and fourth places in two.

Field, Track Sports Undergo Famine

Suffering from a shortage of personnel and from competition with the baseball schedule and practices for the services of athletes, the track squad had only a fair to average season. Coach Paulsen found himself with a maximum of thirteen to enter in meets. During fall quarter five men organized a cross country squad for intercollegiate competition. Action in tennis and golf was limited also by numbers, with only one regularly out for tennis and four for golf.

Randy Senst winds up for a discus throw on the practice field.

Intent on clearing that hurdle is Jim Sturges (ABOVE). Dennis Martin (ABOVE) was the lone Trojan engaged in tennis competition. The golf quartet: Terry Swanson, Bob Mjoen, Art Johnson, and Ken Hunter. They competed in five meets.
