

East or West, we ate with zest

HRI seminar students put on two spectaculars this winter and spring. Their first was an Oriental dinner with a typical Far East menu and Chinese students from UND serving as waiters. LEFT, David Gee prepares the dessert table. The second public dinner was the Circle T, with steaks and all the fixings and a Western decor.

Linda Siewert and Kathy Brenk take orders from a table of students. BELOW, Linda Rosen and Angela Moritz at the covered wagon which held hors d'oeuvres and punch.

Audrey Strege acted as salad girl at the Salute to the Orient.
