

U Politicos Promote Good

Appropriately, the White House is the center for student government. The Senate this year has shown leadership in promoting activities, establishing cooperation with other coordinate campuses, advancing proposals for the good of the college and its students, and taking a more active role in Campus Assembly proceedings.

Student Senate officers this year were Darrell Larsen, president; Evelyn Boser, secretary; Kevin Kopischke, vice president; and Joan Kelzenberg, treasurer.

Regents LoAnne Thrane and Josie Johnson had informal chats with Senate members. BELOW, Duluth SA president Sandy Sweeney and secretary were here to visit. RIGHT, the Senate in session.

