

Above are some of the members of the DFL Youth Caucus, an active political group on campus. They are Kerry Wavernack, Ralph Currier, Raenelle Stanislawski, Jim Digerness, Sam Pupino, Gordon Skjerven, and Dr. David Stoppel, adviser. Students have served on local committees, attended city caucuses, and met regularly for voter education and discussions.

The avant garde in feminine style are found in the Fashion Merchandising Club. Fashion shows are their thing, as Marlene Hagen demonstrates ABOVE RIGHT. LEFT, Margie Newell and Sue Bruggeman dress a model. BELOW LEFT, young women decorating a bulletin board and examining patterns are Pat Wheeler, Dinah Kaplan, Jackie Hopewell, Marlene Hagen, Ann Lindaas, Marilyn Kuznia, Nancy Anderson, Veronica Genereux, and Ruth Schuelke.

The college chapter of Future Farmers of America awarded a snowmobile suit to Karen McDonald because she purchased the winning ticket in their money-raising project. Shown with Karen are Russ Johnsrud, president, and Gary Krueger, vice president.

