

It's Their Game

Eleanor Croone is the infectious promoter of beautiful sounds produced by the choir. Though the group size varies from quarter to quarter, the average membership is fifty.

Rehearsals are held weekly for both the whole choral group and the men's chorus. Having been shunted out of Kiser, the singers now practice in Dowell.