

Hockey Gets Start

Though they went through the season without a win, the newly organized hockey squad practiced and played hard and put up a battle against opponents. They were not entered in conference competition in this their first year. Glen Stinar was head coach, and Charles Habstritt Jr., assistant.

