

New Buildings Dedicated Enhance Campus

Urgent need for more space to house the agricultural engineering department resulted in the construction of Owen Annex. The addition of the ag journalism-radio-broadcasting major gave rise to another need. This impressive lift to the campus skyline is a 133-foot radio tower. KCUM-FM should be on the air by late summer.