

and Hort Clubs

A bird feeder was placed in the sunken garden on the mall by members of the Conservation Club.

Kathryn Masanz was one of the tour guides during Earth Week tours of the natural history area.

Over 250 persons observed signs of wildlife during tours of the Red River Valley Natural History Area as part of Earth Week activities.