

Snowstorms and freezing temperatures discouraged this year's snow sculpture construction. Only one group completed their sculpture to take first place.

Winter brings

Unusually cold weather couldn't destroy the enthusiasm as a week of Snodays activities began. Although snowstorms made construction of snow sculptures practically impossible, the conservation club managed to complete their sculpture "To the Good Life." Sunday, the movie "The Candidate" was shown in Kiehle. Monday, comedian Denny Johnston performed in Bede Hall. King and Queen finalists were announced during the program. Tuesday, the Trojans traveled to Northland Junior College for Hockey Competition. Wednesday evening activities included competition among

The male legs contest found contestants vying for such titles as hairiest legs, sexiest legs or something extra. Jeff Sorenson came away with most honors.

