

Snodays

male students and faculty members in the Male Legs contest. Hockeyball tournaments held Tuesday and Wednesday brought the greatest number of participants and spectators. Championships were held Wednesday evening with the "kingfishers" and "on-campus gals" victorious. Snoday's royalty were announced Thursday at the Red, White and Blue Grass Concert. Jan Oen and Willie Clayton were selected Queen and King. Attendants were Paulette Swanson, Lois Christianson, Gary Wagner and Bruce Hodek. The dance with "Colours" playing was held Friday at the Eagles Lodge.

Competition in the hockeyball tournament was rough with lots of bumps and bruises for those who couldn't maintain their footing on ice.

King Willie Clayton and Queen Jan Oen were presented Friday to begin the 1974 Snodays dance, the final activity of the week.

UMC is transformed into a "winter wonderland" as 1974 Snodays begins.

