

Thursday evening was the Sock Hop with the Jocks. The KCUM announcers played records and held contests. Many students came "greaser style".

A car caravan formed at noon on Saturday. The Queen and her attendants followed by the band led the cars of cheering fans through town to the football field for the Homecoming Game.