

A PAIR OF ACES

Ernest Franklin, HRI professor, puts on a food demonstration.

Below, women in HFS decorate the Children's Center.

Thomas Bloom, M.S., is chairperson for the HRI division.

Robert Downing, M.B.A.

Ernest Franklin, M.S.

Sharon Stewart, B.S.

Phyllis Solee, M.Ed. is chairperson for the HFS Division.

Kevin Shanahan, Inst. HFS.

Marilyn Grave, B.S.

Lou Guthrie, B.S.

HRI stands for Hotel, Restaurant, and Institutional Management, one of UMC's popular programs. Graduates are prepared for positions in the hospitality industry, a field that today offers many and interesting well-paid jobs for the trained person.

HFS signifies Home and Family Services. The students in this division are offered a range of courses from housing and nutrition to child care and interior design. The division maintains a year-round Children's Center for ages six weeks to six years.