

REGENTS MEETING HELD ON CAMPUS

The Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota held their regular meeting on the Crookston campus September 11-12. In addition to their regular business, the group toured the campus and discussed current and future needs here, among them more student housing and larger library and Learning Center facilities.

Regents David Utz, Rochester, and Wenda Moore, Minneapolis.
