

Little house on the prairie, maybe?

ANOTHER BIG EVENT —

Lots of snow and cold weather plus plenty of enthusiasm among students and spectators added up to one of the best Sno-Daze weeks in the college's history. Roxane Olson and Watson McDonald were the reigning monarchs. Court attendants were Tim Donovan, Brian Purkat, Lynn Carlson, and Jeanne Bohrer. Activities included some murderous broom-ball games, skiing at Timberlane, snow sculpture, Partying, dancing, and lots of eating. The Sno-Daze button was an original design created by Kristela Rodriguez. Mark Melbo Was general chairman of the week.

Surrounded by admirers, Queen Roxane accepts the congratulations of Dr. Sahlstrom on her election. Below is a photograph of UMC's '76 button.
