LIBERTY INN was the name of the HRI Seminar for Winter Quarter. Some of the dishes served included Plymouth Rock Cornish game hen, roasted and nestled in a bed of native wild rice; New York Delmonico ribeye steak smothered in rich brown mushroom sauce; and Richmond Rouladen, two slices of stuffed prime top round, braised in Bavarian style gravy. Menus were on antiqued boards, and atmosphere was provided by numerous antiques and waitresses dressed in authentic period costumes.

Hope you enjoyed your meal.
