

AND LOTS OF FLAG WAVING

Having been named an official Bi-Centennial College by the national committee this year, UMC held a colorful outdoor ceremony and flag raising on May 5. The school was presented with a bi-centennial flag by Ed McGaa, state chairman, and a Bennington flag by the UMC Vets Club. A color guard from UND dressed in colonial costumes, assisted at the flag raising. Above, Dr. Sahlstrom, Minutemen, and Vets display the Spirit of '76 banner. Right, Minutemen raise the two flags to join Old Glory, and the three fly over the campus each day.

There was also a christening that day — the college's new bus. It was dubbed "the Golden Goose". Officiating at the rites were Bob Rupp, chairman of the all-college advisory committee, and Provost Sahlstrom. What was in the bottle? Vintage H2O?
