

Faculty Frolics is sponsored each year by the UMC Faculty Women to raise money for scholarships for freshman women planning to return to UMC for their sophomore year. This year's entertainment was based on bi-centennial themes and also featured skits on Tech's tenth anniversary. The program was in charge of Diane Bachmeier, Flo Wiger, and Nancy Ramey. Lynne Mullins was narrator. Actors were faculty members, administrators, and wives and husbands. A faculty wives chorus line is an annual feature. The show always draws large crowds of students and townspeople, because of its originality and wit.

