

'To Market, To Market'

Chairing the Business Division is Larry K. Christiansen, Ed.O.

Robert Smith, M.Ed., and Bruce Brorson, B.A.B.S., are marketing instructors.

Aggressive and competent, the Business Division is second in enrollment at UMC. Possible majors for those who are business-oriented include accounting, business administration, general business, and secretarial. Under the last three there are nineteen options from which the student may choose. The division is equipped with modern classrooms and laboratories in which are housed the newest in office machines. There is also a computer and computer systems center.

Betty Brecto, M.A.; Adolph Beich, M.S.; and Jane Brueske, M.A., Pictured Below, all teach courses in secretarial administration.

