

As the song goes "Its been a very good year." Governor Perpich and other political dignitaries spent time visiting facilities on campus. The enrollment this fall was the largest in the technical college's history. This was the year the new stable for housing the horses for the lighthouse management majors opened. And, "We did it our way."

