

Continuous Activity On Campus With Concerts And Lectures

Every year, the concerts and lectures committee sets up a schedule of various events to keep the students active and involved. This past year, a duo named Edmonds and Curly arrived on campus, and had everybody laughing. A musical group called "Bermuda Triangle" (above) performed at the Trojan Inn. William Walker, Minnesota's Commissioner of Agriculture (lower right) spoke at the Provost's Spring Convocation.

