

International Club Hosts Dinner

The International Club hosted a Malayazian dinner in seven courses this year. All members played a most important part in its success. The club's advisor was Dr. Ervie Glick and membership was open to any UMC student who was interested.

