

The academic year 1979-80 was a significant year in the history of UMC, both in terms of physical construction, as well as of growth and development academically. Equally important were the significant developments in improvement of instruction and continuing efforts to provide a better learning environment for all the students that become a part of the UMC family.

— Provost Stanley D. Sahlstrom

The Beginning Of A Decade

