

The largest graduating class in the history of UMC received associate in applied science degrees in Commencement exercises on Friday, May 16, on the campus mall at 2 p.m.

Featured speaker was Joan Growe, Minnesota Secretary of State. Student Senate President Phil Larson and Alumni President Tom Feiro also addressed the graduates and guests. Regent William B. Dosland brought greetings on behalf of the University of Minnesota Board of Regents.

Provost Dr. Stanley D. Sahlstrom, assisted by Dr. Donald Sargeant, assistant provost for academic affairs, conferred degrees on second-year students who were introduced individually by their division chairmen.

The UMC choir performed. The invocation was given by Brent Jacobson, director of Campus Ministry, and the benediction by Father John Stearns of the Crookston diocese.

